	Key Features: Combines age-appropriate activities for the entire class with individually appropriate instruction in small groups. End-of-unit individual assessments ensure that the group placement for each student is accurate and that students master the skills taught. Integrates all five components of effective reading instruction: phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, comprehension, and fluency. Engages students in a variety of reading experiences. Teachers read Lap Books and other literature favorites to the whole class. During small groups, students explore meaningful text while building reading independence and confidence through unique Duet and Solo Stories. Duet Stories contain both teacher-read text and fully decodable student text and are read by the teacher and student together. The fully decodable Solo Stories are read by the student independently.
